STUDENTS TAKE THE SPOTLIGHT AT CREATIVE ARTS WORKSHOP

New Haven, CT – Creative Arts Workshop is proud to exhibit the works of hundreds of their students— young and old, novices and veterans—for their spring show. Book arts, drawing/painting, jewelry, sculpture, pottery, print making, photography, fiber arts, and works by young people will deck the walls and halls and dazzle visitors. The show opens with refreshments Sunday March 20th from 2 to 4pm and is free to the public. It runs through April 30th.

“When we say the arts are for everyone, this show proves it,” says Executive Director Daniel Fitzmaurice. “From the fanciful to the somber to the how-did-they-do-that, CAW’s Student Show celebrates the endless possibilities of creativity and what anyone can learn to do.”

The Hilles Gallery is opened Monday through Friday 9am to 7pm and Saturday 9am to 12noon. For more information visit CreativeArtsWorkshop.org. The exhibition is sponsored by WSHU Public Radio Group and Black Hog Brewing Company.

ABOUT CREATIVE ARTS WORKSHOP

Creative Arts Workshop is a non-profit community art center devoted to fostering creativity through participation in and appreciation of the visual arts, serving the Greater New Haven area and beyond since 1961. The Workshop is a premiere community resource center for the visual arts offering a wide range of classes to students of all ages in fully equipped studios. CAW is supported by its membership, tuition fees, donors, sponsorships, grants, arts-related fundraising events and a dedicated group of volunteers. Additional funding comes from the Department of Economic and Community Development/Connecticut Office of the Arts, NewAlliance Foundation, Fred DeLuca Foundation, and the The Laetitia V. Pierson Fund and The David G. Powrie Fund of The Community Foundation for Greater New Haven.
