STUDENT EXHIBITION AT CREATIVE ARTS WORKSHOP

New Haven, CT – Creative Arts Workshop is proud to exhibit the works of their students—young and old, novices and veterans—for their winter show. Book arts, drawing/painting, jewelry, sculpture, pottery, print making, photography, and fiber arts will all be represented; there's something for everyone. The show opens with refreshments Sunday January 22nd from 2 to 4pm and is free to the public at 80 Audubon St. in New Haven. It runs through February 24th.

“This show redefines the word, 'student,'" says Executive Director Daniel Fitzmaurice. “It never ceases to impress our visitors by demonstrating the endless possibilities of creativity and what anyone can learn to do.”

The Hilles Gallery is opened Monday through Friday 9am to 7pm and Saturday 9am to 12noon. For more information visit CreativeArtsWorkshop.org. The exhibition is sponsored by WSHU Public Radio Group and Black Hog Brewing Company.

ABOUT CREATIVE ARTS WORKSHOP

Creative Arts Workshop is a non-profit community art center devoted to fostering creativity through participation in and appreciation of the visual arts, serving the Greater New Haven area and beyond since 1961. The Workshop is a premiere community resource center for the visual arts offering a wide range of classes to students of all ages in fully equipped studios. CAW is supported in part by the Department of Economic and Community Development/Connecticut Office of the Arts, NewAlliance Foundation, and the Arts Fund of The Community Foundation for Greater New Haven.
